Miami Prepares For The Hyundai Air & Sea Show

By Alexa Shabinsky | March 11, 2022 | Culture

The Hyundai Air & Sea Show is always a highlight of springtime in Miami. Returning back to Miami Beach on Memorial Day weekend, with some of the most impressive and water experiences.

Aside from the official Air & Sea Show, the event is well known for its musical and entertainment sector, The Music Explosion. This year's beachside performance will include internationally-acclaimed rock band, 3 Doors Down. Combining music with air, the U.S. Army's Army's "As You Were" Band and the U.S. Air Force "Max Impact" Band will also be a part of The Music Explosion concert.

FUN IN THE SUN

Take the most of surf, sand, and sky at the Hyundai Air & Sea Show taking over Miami Beach May 28-29. Daily activities include sea performances by professional Jet Ski riders, and a Cigarette Powerboat racing demonstration showcasing 10 ft jet ski as parachute teams and military craft take to the skies. A "Music Explosion" concert will kick off the evening's fest. Down set to perform Saturday. The event culminates with a special pyrotechnic demonstration by the U.S. Army Golden Knights. The image features a large American flag in the background, with its stars and stripes clearly visible. In the foreground, three soldiers are silhouetted against a bright, orange-hued sky, likely at sunrise or sunset. The soldiers are equipped with various military gear, including helmets, backpacks, and rifles. The overall scene conveys a sense of honor and sacrifice.

There is no better time than Memorial Day weekend to pay tribute to our military, first responders and those that have paid the ultimate sacrifice on behalf of our freedom!
